DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1 and 11, drawn to a method for encrypting transmission traffic, classified in class 713, subclass 200.
  - II. Claims 2-6, 12, and 14, drawn to a method of for transmitting authentication variables, classified in class 713, subclass 176.
  - III. Claims 7-8, 13, and 15, drawn to a method for synchronizing values of an encryption algorithm at a transmission end and receiving end, classified in class 380, subclass 274.
  - IV. Claims 9-10, drawn to a method for generating a message frame, classified in class 380, subclass 337.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because:

2. Inventions I through IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as encrypting data. In the instant case, invention II has separate utility such as authenticating packets. In the instant case, invention III has separate utility such as synchronizing packets. In the instant case, invention IV has separate utility such as generating a packet. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 2132

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II through IV, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group II is not required for Group I and Group III through IV, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group III is not required for Group I through II and Group IV, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group IV is not required for Group I through III, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

3. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Cas Stulberger whose telephone number is (703) 305-8034. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Friday, 9:00A.M. - 5:00P.M.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Gilberto Barron can be reached on (703) 305-1830. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
